IMPORTANT MESSAGE ABOUT THIS ACCOUNT

This letter will serve as an amendment to our approval letter dated January 06, 2012 whereby Bank of America, N.A. and its Investors and/or Insurers have agreed to accept a short payoff involving the above referenced property. Please read this letter carefully to ensure you understand the changes.

WHAT THIS MEANS TO THE SELLER

The owner of your mortgage note, the mortgage insurer, if your loan is covered by mortgage insurance, and Bank of America, N.A. waive their right to pursue collection of any deficiency following the completion of your short sale and your debt is considered settled. The deficiency is the difference between: (1) the remaining amount due under the mortgage note and mortgage or deed of trust; and, (2) the current market value of the property plus any cash contribution you make or amount you agree to repay in the future. The amount of the deficiency will be reported to the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) on the appropriate 1099 Form or Forms. We suggest that you contact the IRS or your tax preparer to determine if you have any tax liability.

Bank of America, N.A. will report the debt to the credit reporting agencies as "paid in full for less than the full balance". To learn more about the potential impact of a short sale on your credit, visit <http://www.ftc.gov/bcp/edu/pubs/consumer/credit/cre24.shtm>.

If it is subsequently determined that the approval of the short sale was based, in part, on information which Bank of America, N.A. later determined to be false or misrepresented or fraudulent, Bank of America, N.A. reserves the right to pursue the remaining balance of the note.

The difference between the current amount due under your mortgage or deed of trust and the current market value of the Property must be reported to the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) on the appropriate 1099 Form or Forms. We suggest that you contact the IRS or your tax preparer to determine if you have any tax liability.

Except as noted below, all other terms of the original approval letter will remain the same. The amendments to the original approval are as follows:
